

1 Perry County Public Library Board of Trustees Bylaws
2 Adopted November 20, 2012

4 Article I
5 Identification

6 This organization is the Board of Trustees of the Perry County Public Library,
7 located in Perry County Tennessee, established by the County of Perry, according 8 to the provisions of Title 10 of the Tennessee Code Annotated, and exercising the 9 powers and assuming the duties granted to it under said statute.

10
11 Article II
12 Membership

13 Section 1. Appointments and Terms of Office. The Board shall be composed of 14 seven members appointed by the Perry County Commission. Members will serve
15 without salary for a term of three years. The terms shall be staggered so that two 16 or three members' terms will expire each year. Board members may serve two 17 consecutive terms and may be reappointed after a minimum three-year break in 18 service.

19 Section 2. Regional Board Members. Every member of the regional board who is 20 not an active member of a county library board is hereby designated an ex-officio
21 member of the local county board. Ex-officio board members may vote, serve as a 22 quorum, serve as officers, enter into discussions and serve on committees of the 23 local board.

24 Section 3. Meeting Attendance. Any Board member who misses three
25 consecutive meetings, without sufficient cause, may be asked to resign, by letter
26 from the Board.

27
28 Article III
29 Officers

30 Section 1. The officers shall be a chair, a vice-chair, and a secretary, elected from 31 among the appointed trustees at the annual meeting. No member shall hold more
32 than one office at a time. No member shall be eligible to serve more than four 33 consecutive terms in the same office. Vacancies in office shall be filled by vote at 34 the next regular meeting of the Board after the vacancy occurs.

35 Section 2. Officers shall serve a term of one year from the annual meeting at which 36 they are elected and until their successors are duly elected.

37 Section 3. The chair shall preside at meetings of the Board, authorize calls for 38 special meetings, appoint all committees, execute all documents authorized by the 39 Board, serve as an ex-officio voting member of all committees except the 40 nominating committee, and generally perform all duties associated with the office
41 of chair.

42 Section 4. The vice-chair, in the event of the absence or disability of the chair, or 43 of a vacancy in that office, shall assume and perform the duties and functions of 44 the chair until the chair returns or a new chair is elected.

45 Section 5. The secretary shall keep true and accurate minutes of all meetings of 46 the Board, shall issue notice of all regular and special meetings, and shall perform such other duties as are generally associated with the office of secretary. The library director or a member of the staff may be designated by the Board to perform any or all of the above duties.

Article IV Meetings

Section 1. Regular Meetings. The regular meetings shall be held bi-monthly, the dates and hour to be set by the Board.

Section 2. Annual Election of Officers. The annual meeting, which shall include the election of officers whose terms have ended, shall be held at the time of the regular meeting in July of each year, the first meeting of the fiscal year.

Section 3. Agendas and Notices. Meeting agendas and notices shall indicate the time, date, and place of the meeting and indicate all subject matters intended for consideration at the meeting.

Section 4. Minutes. Minutes of all meetings shall, at a minimum, indicate board members present, all items of business, all motions (except those that were withdrawn), and the result of all votes taken. Current board minutes shall be retained on file in the library for public review.

Section 5. Special Meetings. Special meetings may be called at the direction of the chair, for the transaction of business as stated in the call for the meeting. Except in cases of emergency, at least 48 hours' notice shall be given. In no case may less than two hours' notice be given.

Section 6. Quorum. A quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting shall consist of four members of the Board present in person. Proxy voting is not permitted.

Section 7. Open Meetings Law Compliance. All Board meetings and all committee meetings shall be held in compliance with Tennessee's Open Meetings Law (Tennessee Code Annotated 8-44-101 through 8-44-108).

Section 8. Parliamentary Authority. The rules contained in Robert's Rules of Order, latest revised edition, shall govern the parliamentary procedure of the meetings, in all cases in which they are not inconsistent with these bylaws and any statutes applicable to this Board.

Article V Committees

Section 1. Standing Committees. Standing Committees (if any), such as Personnel, Budget and Policy, shall be appointed by the chair at the first meeting of the fiscal year and shall make recommendations to the Board as pertinent to Board meeting agenda items.

Section 2. Ad Hoc Committees. Ad hoc committees for the study of special issues, such as Planning or Technology, shall be appointed by the chair, with the approval of the Board, to serve until the final report of the work for which they were appointed has been filed. These committees may also include staff and public representatives, as well as outside experts.

Section 3. No committee shall have other than advisory powers.

Article VI
Duties of the Board of Trustees

Section 1. Legal responsibility for the operation of the Perry County Public Library is vested in the Board of Trustees. Subject to state and federal law, the Board has the power and duty to determine rules and regulations governing library operations and services.

Section 2. The Board shall select, appoint and supervise a properly certified and competent library director, and determine the duties and compensation of all library employees.

Section 3. The Board shall approve the budget and ensure that adequate funds are provided to finance the approved budget.

Section 4. The Board shall supervise and maintain buildings and grounds, as well as regularly review various physical and building needs, to see that they meet the requirements of the total library program.

Section 5. The Board shall study and support legislation that will bring about the greatest good to the greatest number of library users.

Section 6. The Board shall cooperate with other public officials and boards and maintain vital public relations.

Article VII
Library Director

The library director shall be appointed by the Board of Trustees and shall be responsible to the Board. The library director shall be considered the executive officer of the library under the direction and review of the Board, and subject to the policies established by the Board. The director shall act as technical advisor to the Board. The director shall be invited to attend all Board meetings (but may be excused from closed sessions) and shall have no vote.

Article VIII
Conflict of Interest

Section 1. Board members may not in their private capacity negotiate, bid for, or enter into a contract with the Perry County Public Library in which they have a direct or indirect financial interest.

Section 2. A board member shall withdraw from Board discussion, deliberation, and vote on any matter in which the Board member, an immediate family member, or an organization with which the Board member is associated has a substantial financial interest.

Section 3. A board member may not receive anything of value that could reasonably be expected to influence his or her vote or other official action.

Article IX
General

Section 1. An affirmative vote of the majority of all members of the Board present at the time shall be necessary to approve any action before the Board. The chair may vote upon and may move or second a proposal before the Board.

Section 2. These bylaws may be amended at any regular meeting of the Board by majority vote of all members of the Board, provided written notice of the proposed 140 amendment shall have been sent to all members at least one week prior to the 141 meeting at which such action is proposed to be taken.

Appendix 1: LIBRARY BOARD JOB DESCRIPTIONS

I. Board Chair

The chair is elected by board members to offer leadership and to perform the functions which enable the board to conduct its business. The board chair often makes appearances in the community as a representative of the board, conducts fair and effective meetings, and serves as the link to the library without trying to run day-to-day functions of the library or impose personal choices on the staff or board. Board members should consider the following leadership skills necessary for a chair:

Ability to create an atmosphere in which people work productively.

Ability to organize and coordinate work, delegate assignments, and monitor the progress of the group.

Ability to interpret important factors relating to any problem at hand.

Ability to communicate with others in a clear, concise way both in writing and verbally.

Ability and willingness to devote time and energy to achieving the mission and goals of the library.

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE LIBRARY BOARD CHAIR

1. Calls and presides over all board meetings, plans meetings, prepares agenda with director, establishes ground rules for meetings so that everyone has the chance to be heard.

2. Appoints permanent and temporary committees for specific assignments.

3. Monitors the progress of committee meetings and provides additional assistance as needed.

4. Is chief spokesman and the public symbol of the library. Gives interviews to all media, speaks at public meetings, governmental hearings, etc. Often gets the praise and blame for activities of the library board.

5. Serves on local, regional, or national task force and committees.

6. Works closely with the director and staff between meetings and on special issues. (However, the chair is only a member of the board and cannot make policy, budget, or other decisions unilaterally, unless prior delegation of such authority and instruction has been voted by the board).

7. Works with the library director and with elected officials on major issues such as:
library finance
building projects

other major or critical issues

8. Receives and analyzes all mail addressed to the board and works closely with the secretary to assure follow-up.

II. Board Vice-Chair

The vice-chair should have the same skills as the chair:

Ability to create an atmosphere in which people work productively.

Ability to organize and coordinate work, delegate assignments, and monitor the progress of the group.

195 Ability to interpret important factors relating to any problem at hand.
196 Ability to communicate with others in a clear, concise way both in writing and 197 verbally.
198 Ability and willingness to devote time and energy to achieving the mission and 199 goals of the library.
200

201 DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE LIBRARY BOARD VICE-CHAIR

- 202 1. Conducts meetings and handles board business in the absence of chair.
- 203 2. May be delegated the responsibility for monitoring the activities of several
- 204 committees if the board's workload is heavy and there are many deadlines to meet.
- 205 3. Automatically becomes the library board chair in case of resignation or death
- 206 unless the bylaws provide for other methods of succession.
- 207 4. Presides in the absence of the chair or whenever the chair temporarily vacates
- 208 or steps down from the position.
- 209 5. May exercise all duties of the chair, except to change or modify any rules made
- 210 by the chair, in case the chair should be absent for a long period of time.

211

212 III. Board Secretary

213 The secretary is in charge of the minutes and formal records of the board.
214

215 QUALIFICATIONS OF THE SECRETARY

216 Knowledge of organization.
217 Quick, perceptive mind and clear speaking and reading voice.
218 Accuracy and speed in taking notes and good organizational skills.
219 Ability to draft understandable but concise diplomatic letters and reports.
220

221 DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE LIBRARY BOARD SECRETARY

- 222 1. Issues all calls or notices of meetings for the board and committees.
- 223 2. Takes the official minutes of all board and committee meetings (or reviews and
- 224 certifies the staff secretary's minutes for accuracy).
- 225 3. Prepares roll call lists and calls the roll when necessary.
- 226 4. Presides at meetings when the chair and vice-chair are not present.
- 227 5. Assists the chair in adhering to the agenda.
- 228 6. Assists the chair with parliamentary procedure if no parliamentarian is present.
- 229 7. Brings reference materials to all meetings including: articles of incorporation and
- 230 ordinance, bylaws, previous minutes, policy manual, book on parliamentary
- 231 procedure, and a list of unfinished business.
- 232 8. Records names of all committee appointments and notifies all persons
- 233 nominated or elected to be on committees and provides the committee chair with
- 234 lists of members and instructions for the committee.
- 235 9. Reads all papers that may be called for by the board.
- 236 10. Authenticates by signature all records and documents.
- 237 11. Handles all correspondence and distribution of mail, often with the assistance
- 238 of the library staff, and follows through to assure that all correspondence requiring
- 239 a reply has been answered.

12. May be assigned to write or edit newsletters, condense committee reports for publication, or edit committee reports. May be responsible for placing notices, articles, or other material in organizational publications.

NOTE: Since the duties of a competent secretary are numerous, the library staff may handle the paperwork. It should be mutually agreed upon in advance and in writing which responsibilities will be assumed by the staff. The secretary should work closely with the director in these areas.
